College of Health Professions Teaching Innovations 2014-2015

Arnaut, G. Barr-Gillespie, A. Bell, K. Davis-Risen, S. Della Paolera, M. Koslofsky, S. Ourada, V. Park, S. Parker, K. Reuler, E. Rohner, S. Stein, S. Timpone, C. Member of Interprofessional Education and Practice Committee, which developed interprofessional certification. April 2012-May 2014.

Arnaut, G. Conversion of all SPP clinical training documentation to online systems. September 2013-present.

Arnaut, G. Development of Clinical Mentor system for clinical training. 2014-2015.

Bell, M., Schaid, L., Westrick, T. Development of Simulation Lab curriculum and activities to facilitate clinical skills acquisition and advancement for first year Au.D. students. July 1, 2014-June 30, 2015.

Boggis T. OTD660 Competencies for OT Practice; Development of a new course for the Occupational Therapy Doctoral Program, Spring 2015.

Boggis, T. OTD699 Independent Study: Interprofessional Diabetes Clinic Development of an elective course for the Occupational Therapy Doctoral Program Fall 2014.

Brems C, Davis S, Christopher M, Zearley K, Christiansen L, Michael P, Tasker T. Development of the MA/MS Program in Applied Psychological Sciences. NWCCU Accreditation Application, June 2013 (approved September 2013).

Coplen, A. All examinations for DHS 335 administered through Moodle with Respondus Lockdown browser for the first time.

Coplen, A. Weekly reading quizzes developed for DHS 462 which is an online course to create more accountability to the weekly readings.

Coplen, A. Assumed the role of course director of DHS 380 which resulted in course re-design making the course entirely discussion and activity based.

Crawford, E. New Pacific University/Tacoma MultiCare Postgraduate Physician Assistant Fellowship in Hospitalist Medicine Program. November 2014.

Davis-Risen, S. Developed and Implemented Clinical Skills Focused Case Studies presented longitudinally across the Physician Assistant Clinical Skills curriculum.

Devaud L, Kraus C, Michael P, Fortner J, Malhotra A. "Assessment of Accommodations in Learning Styles by Students in an Accelerated Pharmacy Program". Implemented in the fall 2014 and spring 2015 in the first and second professional years of the School of Pharmacy. Data collection under way.

Dimmler, L., and Plato, T. Design and development of the distance-technology BHS degree-completion program (2014-2015).

Doyle I, Elbarbry F, Markus K, Marlow C, Fuentes D. Mapping Exam Questions to Curricular Outcomes. March 2015.

Elbarbry F. Diving Deep into Diabetes. A new CHP elective course, January 2015.

Foeppe, M. Establishment on a new Post-Graduate Year 2 Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Residency. ASHP accreditation survey completed, April 2014.

Foidel, S. Development and Coordination of Occupational Therapy's Doctoral Experiential Internship. Summer 2015.

Fuentes, D. Co-Development of a Structured Peer-Review Process for Evaluating Teaching Effectiveness and Faculty Teaching Goal-Setting, Pacific University Oregon, School of Pharmacy (2015).

Fuentes, D. Co-Development of a Selection Process for the Teacher of the Year, Pacific University Oregon, School of Pharmacy (2015).

Fuentes, D. Co-Development of Portfolio to Teach Self-Awareness, Pacific University Oregon, School of Pharmacy (2014-2015).

Fuentes, D. Co-Development and Coordination of Comprehensive Assessment Exam (during PHRM 709) for Graduating Students, Pacific University Oregon, School of Pharmacy (2014-2015).

Fuentes, D. Hughes, J. Overseeing the Restructuring of the Program's Ability-based Outcomes to Align with the CAPE 2013 and "Standards 2016" Accreditation Standards, Pacific University Oregon, School of Pharmacy (2014-present).

Hacker, N. Added new lab portion of AUD 573, AUD 534, AUD 557. School of Audiology, January, February, May 2015.

Hacker, N. Assisted in developing and assessing students in clinical and didactic proficiency exams, School of Audiology, April 2015.

Heassler, A. Developed and implemented a different Year 1 Practicum rotation then had been done in prior years. This rotation included on-campus clinic at Pacific EarClinic, off-campus hearing screenings, and community-based observations.

Heassler, A. Developed and implemented hearing screening program in partnership with Beaverton School District.

Heassler, A. Developed and implemented a new Counseling in Audiology course curriculum to include online resources available to practicing clinicians.

Hughes, J. Task Force Chair: Development of Remediation Preceptors and Sites for Advanced Pharmacy Practice Experiences—Pacific University Oregon School of Pharmacy (2014-2015).

Jackson L. Revision and further creation of a syllabus for PA630 Family Medicine Rotation.

Jackson L. Revised the Pacific University Family Medicine Rotation Student-Preceptor Handbook for PA630 Family Practice Rotation.

Karimi, R. Chavez, B. Elbarbry, F. Fortner, J. Fuentes, D. Hughes, J. Millard, M. Roberts, S. Barton, R. Marlow, C. Enhancing self-awareness through intentional linkage of student performance data and perceptions. June 2015.

Keene, D. Incorporation of Interprofessional seminars (Optometry, Audiology, Wound Care, Physical Therapy) during the Professional Practice Seminars for Clinical Phase students.

Keetay, V. and School of Audiology faculty and staff: Maintained Doctor of Audiology program's status as the second-largest AuD program in the country (out of 74 programs) three years in a row, 2012-2014 (since inception of the program in 2012).

Koslofsky, S. Von, M. Developed interactive game for use in Team Dynamics and Professionalism class in IPC. Funded by TARGET grant. 2014.

Malhotra A. "C.A.P.E.-talizing the Pharmacology Classroom: Integrating Interprofessional Collaborative Exercises to Teach Cardiovascular and Renal Pharmacology". Implemented in the fall 2014 and spring 2015 PHRM 569 and PHRM 583 blocks in the first professional year of the School of Pharmacy. Data collection under way. Also submitted as TARGET grant 2014.

Malhotra A. "Applying Metacognitive Strategies in the Pharmacy Classroom". Implemented in the fall 2014 and spring 2015 PHRM 569 and PHRM 583 blocks in the first professional year of the School of Pharmacy. Data collection under way. Also submitted as TARGET grant 2015.

Malhotra A. "Developing C.A.P.E.able Pharmacists: Mentoring Student-Led Career Development Workshops". Implemented in the spring in the first professional year of the School of Pharmacy.

Millard, M. Student Presentations and Practice Question writing for study of Oregon Pharmacy Administrative Rules. PHRM 695. January 2015.

Millard, M. Module Facilitation and Role Modeling for Interdisciplinary Students. IPC CHP 510. March 2015.

Millard, M. Leadership planning and self-development of leadership skills. PHRM 751. 2015.

Miller, C. Child & Adolescent Interventions course organized the course around intervention type, with multiple activities in class, using case vignettes as well as de-identified cases. Students complete an annotated bibliography assignment where they have to critically review 20 studies on treating different childhood disorders and then present their findings to the class, so that they also get the information typically presented when following the traditional method of teaching this class.

Norris, B. I have incorporated ReelDx Video Case studies into my classroom teaching to help enhance student understanding by providing case-based learning opportunities.

Pedemonte, M. Self-taught imaging section will be added to the anatomy course work.

Reisch, B. Implemented Moodle for test administration and delivery of course materials, leading to reduced time in grading tests and reduction of paper use.

Rodriguez, M. Implemented a unique flipped-classroom model with combined hybrid/online sections, where lecture and practice activities are online with group work completed either in-class or in virtual teams. Methodologies: Continuous feedback, strong faculty-to-student engagement, and student-to-student engagement, interactive participation, interactive videos & virtual patients, clinical visits and collaborative virtual teams.

Rodriguez, M. Cultural Project in Nicaragua: Each year, Pacific University's College of Healthcare Professions offers students a travel opportunity to provide health-related services to elders in Nicaragua. Students learn to work in interdisciplinary teams to perform a needs-based health assessment of elders housed in care facilities known as "hogares." This activity introduces Spanish for students who recently participated in the Nicaragua program and explores other healthcare systems in Latin American countries. Students gain an understanding of the social, economic, and political factors that affect the healthcare systems and access to healthcare services in these countries.

Rohner, S. CODA-based student clinical tracking and reporting (DHS 414, 424), September 2014-April 2015.

Rutt RA, McIntosh L, Kawaguchi JK. Athletic Training Program. CAATE Accreditation June 2014.

Stamper, B. Buhler, A. Harrelson, J. Malhotra, A. Roberts, S. Elbarbry, F. Rao, D. Marlow, C. Karimi, R. Devaud, L. Development of online pharmacy prerequisite review tutorials for first year pharmacy students. American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy, July 2014.

Van Atta, J. Used videos to stimulate discussion, then followed with new component dubbed "The Human Factor," a guest Q&A series for 2 topics in Behavioral Medicine (PTSD and Obesity).

Van Atta, J. Worked with Prof. AJ Sommers (Pharmacology lecturer) to redesign Infection & Immunology Module to focus on bugs and drugs, and to serve as a transition course into organ-based clinical medicine modules. Used Poll Everywhere to stimulate discussion and defense of pathogens students would put “on your watch list” in clinical practice.

Von, M., Zijdemans-Boudreau, A., Dimmler, L., and Twyman, T. Design of the inter-professional, distance-technology PhD program in Education and Leadership (2014-2015).

Wintz, G. University of Indianapolis-Program Evaluation and Development: OTPP 702: 3 credits. Developed the course and taught Post-Professional doctoral students. Summer semester 2009 to present.

White, J. New OTD Program for the School of Occupational Therapy ACOTE Accreditation, December 2014.
