COMPLETE CHIROPRACTIC & SPORTS THERAPY

To Pacific University Physiotherapy graduates:

Complete Chiropractic & Sports Therapy (CCST) in Calgary, Alberta is looking for a part-time or full-time Physiotherapist.

Our clinic is an evidence-informed, patient-centered, results-oriented, multi-disciplinary practice consisting of sports chiropractic and massage therapy looking to add a physiotherapist.

We are looking for a physiotherapist who is keen on building a practice using a one-on-one treatment model. A manual therapy background or interest as well as training to provide acupuncture services are an asset.

Currently, there is very little competition within the surrounding neighborhoods, which is a rarity for inner city practices. We also offer competitive wages (likely higher than our regional industry standards) and flexible hours.

Our clinic is located in inner city Calgary in the community of West Hillhurst. We are directly across from the beautiful Bow River and its very busy bike and footpath.

To apply for this job please email your CV to info@ccstcalgary.com or call our clinic at 403-245-2686 for more information.

Congratulations on joining a very rewarding profession and best of luck!
